11:30 AM- 1:00 PM

St. Lukes Methodist Church

OSPSP is planning our annual fundraiser, Reach for the Stars. Funds raised will directly impact our program helping low-income, single parents earn college degrees and become financially self-sufficient.

The event will be held Thursday, September 12, from 11:30am – 1:00pm at St. Luke’s Methodist Church. If you have attended in the past, we are changing our format this year to a luncheon and welcoming a keynote speaker. We are excited to host New York Times Best Selling author Stephanie Land, best known for the book that serves as inspiration for the Netflix series Maid. In addition to the book Maid, Stephanie has recently written the book Class, which details her experience going to college as a single mother living in poverty to earn an English degree. We hope you will attend, and we ask you to consider being a sponsor of the event.

Sponsorships are the lifeblood of our organization. OSPSP provides scholarships of up to $2,400 per year to parents who are full-time college students with primary custody of their children. Parents use our funds for daycare, rent, food - whatever needs they have - to help them care for their children, stay in school, earn degrees, and establish financial independence.

Your sponsorship will help OSPSP meet our goal of raising $150,000 and continue to grow the number of scholarships we can extend in 2025. We would be so grateful for your support. If you are unable to be a sponsor, please consider making a donation in any amount. OSPSP is doubling our efforts this year on fundraising and therefore asking that you consider doubling your sponsorship donation. OSPSP is ready to assist more single parent families in Oklahoma and we need your help to do that!
